RAMBLING THOUGHTS.

No matter how great our ambition may be to do great things, it is just as well to keep in sight the importance and value of little things. Great results do not grow out of great causes but out of a multitude of minor exertions making the great result possible. The oak tree rises from a small acorn and many small acorns can grow a forest. Many good intentioned people really waste some of their power waiting for a great result and disregarding the real daily and minor efforts that shall bring the great result to pass.

There is another view, but it is not often spoken about. It involves the thought that great moral characters and men and women of extraordinary power frequently are those whose lives, analyzed day by day, week by week and year by year, show a long series of mistakes. Their growth to strength frequently comes from recognizing the mistakes and the resolution never to make such a mistake again. You can depend upon it that back of the triumphant front some men and women of power turn towards the world, there is a battle field of the heart strown with defeated enemies of the self, each victory being a little in itself, but the total result being grand for the individual and of untold benefit for the human race. I know the usual view is that a mistake once made can never be undone, and that "The bird with the broken pinion can never soar so high again," but the wing of a bird and the moral power of a man are not parallel.

Just at the time when our papers are filled with war news and rumors of wars that may yet be in Europe, in the West Indies and in South America, it is just as well for us to take a look away towards other kinds of heroism.

There is in battle a heroism that comes from the frenzy of excitement. In some men this frenzy carries them to deeds of daring; in others, without any will of their own, it carries them out of battle as fast as their legs can move. Many a man who has run away at the shock of battle has been really brave in his sane moments, while many a hero in battle has not been brave enough out of battle to do the right thing without praise. It always has been easy to exaggerate the glory of warfare. It is done among witnesses with a thrilling stage setting.

But what abont the ten thousand times ten thousand men who do not go to battle and who could not if they would? Is there no heroism among them? You know the answer. There are men set down by force of circumstances to uncongenial tasks while their hearts swell within them and their breath comes short with desire for a wider sphere: but they do not run away. They are held there by a sense of duty and they heroically stay there unwitnessed and unsung. Think of the countless deeds of heroism that women perform,—even more than men shut away from any public approval and from any recoguition other than the sweet consciousness within themselves that they are doing what they ought to do just where they are.

It is a false idea of history as a whole to think that it is "made" only by battle fields and by warriors. The political map may indeed be changed with war, but the social growth and progress of a nation can go on though no war to come to it, and that social growth and progress comes from each man taking his lot as he finds it, making the best of it that he can, working faithfully without praise and witnout favor, and then leaving his small accretion of progress behind him for the next generation.

Let us who are in the bands of restraining circumstances, tied down when we should like to fly, working hard when we should like to rest, and toiling unsung when public recognition would be sweet—let us grow proud in the consciousness that our heroism can be just as true as that which makes a man calmly face thundering artillery or the spitting fire of rifles.

The counties of San Mateo and Santa Cruz comprise the Twenty-ninth Senatorial District. A State Senator to represent this district will be chosen next November, and well-posted politicians would not be surprised if Assemblyman H.W. Brown of San Mateo would be nominated by the Republican convention and elected by the voters of the district. He has represented San Mateo County in the Assembly for three terms, and is quite familiar with the legislative affairs. Santa Cruz has several aspirants for State Senatorial honors, but the question of locality may not govern in the selection of a nominee.—Call.

Laborers in Panama are about to go on strike for higher wages. The world's opinion of the benighted condition of the natives of the isthmus will have to be revised.

An exchange advises the leap year girl not to seek another woman's husband, but rather make to a bachelor. The point is one well made and will be indorsed by the married sisters.

If there are any Mormons on the pension rolls, Uncle Sam cannot be expected to provide for five or six families of each soldier.

The high standing of Judge Parker is further attested by his measurement. He looms up six feet two.

Notice of Sale of Real Estate.

Pursuant to an order of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda, dated May 2nd, 1904, and made in the matter of the Estate of Margaret E. Walrath, deceased, notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned, A. D. Cushing, executor of the will of said Margaret E. Walrath, deceased, will sell on or after May 31, 1904, at private sale, to the highest bidder for cash in United States gold coin, all that real property situate in the county of San Mateo, State of California, described as follows, to-wit:

An undivided nine-sixteenths (9-16) interest in all that piece or parcel of land situate in the County of San Mateo, State of California, and known and designated as Block Number Forty-six, (46) of the Abbey Homestead Association, according to a certain map marked "Map of the Lands of the Abbey Homestead Association, as finally surveyed by William P. Humphreys, April 1871," which said map was filed for record in the office of the County Recorder of said County of San Mateo, January 2, 1872, and recorded in said office of said Recorder in Liber Fifteen (15) of Deeds at pages 2 and 3.

Bids or offers in writing for said property will be received by me at the office of my attorney, J. B. Richardson, Room 2, No. 957 Broadway, Oakland, Cal., or may be filed with the Clerk of said Court at any time after the first publication of this notice and before the sale is made. A. D. CUSHING,

The Average Man.

The factor which is overlooked by those who fear the ascendency of any quixotic notion is the existence of the average man. This individual is not a striking personality, but he holds the balance of power. Before any extravagant idea can establish itself it must convert the average man. He is very susceptible and takes a suggestion so readily that it seems to prophesy the complete overthrow of the existing order of things. But was ever a conversion absolute? The best theologians say no. A great deal of the old Adam is always left over. When the average man takes up with a quixotic notion, only so much of it is practically wrought out as he is abie to comprehend. The old Adam of common sense continually asserts itself. The natural corrective of quixotism is Sancho Panaism. The solemn knight, with his head full of visionary plans, is followed by a squire who is as faithful as his nature will permit. Sancho has no theories and makes no demands on the world. He leaves that sort of thing to his master. He has the fatalism which belongs to ignorant good nature and the tolerance which is found in easy going persons who have neither ideals nor nerves. He has no illusions, though he has all the credulity of ignorance.—S. M. Crothers in Atlantic.

One of Bill Nye's Jokes.

When Bill Nye one day happened on the modest sign of Major Pond, the lecturer manager, in a window of the Everett House, in New York, he said to a friend who accompanied him: "Here's the man that incites the lecturers. Let's go in and see if we can't induce him to lead a better life." Entering, Nye removed his hat and ran his hand over the hairless expanse of his head and after staring about for a moment said, "This is Major Pond, I believe." "Yes, sir. What can I do for you?" answered the major. "I want to get a job on the platform," returned Nye. "Ah, yes," said the major slowly "Have you had experience?" "Well, I've been before the public for a couple of years." "Yes? May I ask in what capacity?" "I've been with Barnum. Sat concealed in the bottom of a cabinet and exhibited my head as the largest ostrich egg in captivity."

SANTIAGO.

A Stirring War Drama Will Be Presented at the Alhambra To-night.

The Central Theme Is a Pretty Love Affair Laid in Washington, D. C.

The stirring military drama Santiago, will be presented at the Alhambra there to-night by a cast made up entirely of local talent. The rehearsals for the play have been carried on faithfully for some weeks and all who attend will see a production equal in every way to the presentations of traveling companies who show in this town. No pains or expenses have been spared to make the affair a success and the number of seats already disposed of shows that a large audience will be in attendance.

The scene of the play is laid in Washington, D. C. and Santiago de Cuba and the action is at the time of the late Spanish-American war. A very pretty love affair is the central theme and each act is replete with humorous and pathetic situations.

Too much credit cannot be given to W. A. Shrewsbury, who has managed the affair, for his indefatigable labors for its success. It was no easy task to get together and train a cast of forty-two characters, but that has been done and to-night will without doubt crown his efforts with success.

Among the pathetic scenes is where Philip Bassett is brought from the field wounded, to the hospital, where he is met by his sister and sweetheart. The touching manner in which his loved ones view the unconscious soldier is well portrayed and the acting good.

Among the stirring presentations which have ever been put upon the Redwood stage will be the battle scene and its aftermath where Captain Hutton comes forth to his death.

Pathetic as it is there are such humorous touches as to provoke loads of mirth. Beverly and his chickens are a source of annoyance and Corny Gayer is a show in himself.

The proceeds of the play will be turned over to the trustees of the Congregational church, for the benefit of which the production will be given.

The following is the cast of characters:

Captain Oscar Hutton, U. S. A.....F. H. Thorpe
Lieut. Fisk, U. S. A.....A. Liguori
Milton Merry, U. S. N.....A. Mansfield
Lieut. Cristobal, U. S. A.....Chas. Roller
Dr. Harrison, Red Cross H. S.....H. Holmquist
Elmer Walton, banker.....H. Holmquist
Phillip Bassett, his stepson.....J. D. Fayen
Fernando Diaz, Walton's cashier.....W. A. Shrewsbury
Beverly Brown, Walton's butler.....O. Comper
Cornelius Dwyer, Walton's coachman.....H. G. Watrous
Antonio Carlos.....A. B. Way
Cora Bassett, his stepsdaughter.....Mrs. F. H. Thorpe
Bess Walton, Walton's daughter.....Miss Eva Rockwell
Ysobel Carlos, Antonio's daughter.....Miss Bliss Rockwell
American Soldiers, American Sailors, Spanish Soldiers, Guerillas.

During the intermission between acts the orchesira will render selections.

ELECTRIC ROAD EXTENSION.

The Road Will Be Extended to San Jose as Soon as Possible.

Plans for improving the service between San Francisco and San Mateo over the electric system will be taken up as readily as the opportunity affords itself. As to the proposed extension of the road to San Jose, it was stated at the company's office recently that the entire route has been surveyed and stations and all other details arranged for carrying out the project as soon as the material for the construction of the line can be secured. Part of this survey includes a change in the route between San Francisco and San Mateo, the company having two purposes in view. One is to bring a larger portion of the line into the more thickly populated section of San Francisco in order to increase its earning capacity and the other is to take the line off the public highways and operate it through private domains, which have already granted rights of way, so as to permit the running of cars at a higher rate of speed than is permitted along roads over which the counties have jurisdiction. The company's agents have been carefully studying the conditions between San Francisco and San Jose and have reported that the operation of an electric service between these two points, touching at many of the larger towns along the way, will prove successful from a financial standpoint.

The first preliminary between John Young of San Francisco and Petaluma Kid of Petaluma was declared a draw after six rounds of rather slow fighting. After waiting for some time for the appearance of F. Polander of Mayfield, the second preliminary was declared off and the main event began. During the early rounds of the fight Kelly did most of the fighting and nearly landed a knockout blow in the second round putting Hanson down twice for nine seconds. Up to the seventh round the fighting was even, when the terrific pace began to tell on Kelly and Hanson had everything his own way thereafter. Kelly's seconds threw up the sponge at the end of the ninth reund to save their man from a knockout. The audience seemed pleased and when these men meet again in the near future a good crowd will be assured.

A Home Wedding.

Charles Heiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Heiner, and Miss Frieda Caspar, of Cincinnati, Ohio, were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the groom's parents. Only the immediate relatives, numbering twenty, were present, and Miss Olga Heiner and Harrold Heiner attended the couple. Rev. T. C. Marshal of St. Peters Episcopal church performed the ceremony, after which the young couple left for Monte Rio, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. Heiner is one of Redwood City's best known young men. He was born and raised here, attending the public school. He learned the trade of his father and is now employed by P. Olsen, the Menlo painter. Mrs. Heiner lived in Redwood for some months but about a year ago left with her parents for her former home in Ohio. She is a charming young lady and made many friends while a resident here. They will make their home in Redwood. The Times-Gazette extends to them the wishes for a happy and prosperous life.

Death of Mrs. Hugh Kelly.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Kelly, which occurred at Portola Monday, removes another of the old and beloved county residents. Mrs. Kelly was the wife of the late Hugh Kelly, whose death occurred exactly four years ago (May 10, 1900). She was the sister of Mrs. Jas. R. Doyle and had lived close to the scene of her death nearly fifty years. Five children were born to her, three of whom, two sons and a daughter, are dead; the surviving ones being Eugene, who is in Butte, Montana, and Thomas, who resides with his family at the old homestead. The funeral left the home of the deceased at 8:30 yesterday and mass for the repose of her soul was held in the Portola Catholic church at 9 o'clock. The interment was at Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo Park, a large concourse of friends following the remains to their last resting place.

Will Meet in San Miguel.

The second annual meeting of the California Central Coast Counties Association will convene in San Miguel on the 26th of this month. It is expected that there will be a large attendance and although the program is not yet complete it is known that many interesting subjects will come up for consideration. The citizens of San Miguel are preparing to give the delegates a hearty reception and there will be no lack of entertainment for them during the hours of recess.

Mill Co. vs. Coburn.

The suit of the Gazos Mill and Lumber Company, assignees of Littlefield & Grom, against Loren Coburn and Miss Upton, which has been on trial at intervals in the Superior Court during the past three weeks, was yesterday submitted to the Court for decision. The suit was commenced by the mill company to determine its right to cut timber on the lands of the defendants, and also to use the Pigion Point landing. During its trial a number of witnesses were present from the coastside.

Will Leave Sequoia.

Professor Miles, the Science teacher of the Sequoia high school, has decided to go south for some time and will therefore give up his situation in the school. It will be difficult to find another science teacher of Mr. Miles' ability, and his determination to leave Sequoia at the end of the term is not only regretted in that institution but by the whole school district as well.

A Crooked Cook.

Frank J. Sramek, a cook, who was arrested in San Francisco Monday for burglary, is also wanted in this county for stealing a watch and three purses containing $50 from the Burlingame Club where he was employed under the name of Schwerin. He has been identified by Manager McLeod of the Burlingame Club and conviction failing in San Francisco he will probably be tried in this county.

Miss Morlarty and Miss Bruce are the new clerks employed at Frazer's big store at Palo Alto. This makes seven out of the ten lady clerks employed there from Menlo Park.

John Johnston, who worked on the Stanford stock farm for fifteen years and has lately been in business at Woodside, left that place Wednesday for St. Louis. After taking in the Exposition he will go to his old home in Sweden to remain permanently.

The graduating exercises of Holtt's school will take place to-day. The program includes an annual track meet between two picked teams of academic rank, which will take place in the forenoon. At noon a reception will be held. A dance in the afternoon and a grand ball in the evening will conclude the enjoyable senior day.

Yesterday attorney Jas. T. O'Keefe filed the final account and petition of distribution of the administrator of the estate of John Collins. The account shows that the amount of money received was $7241.85, and the amount paid out $4735.43, leaving a balance on hand of $2506.42. The largest claim filed against the estate was a $2434 mortgage. The heirs are a brother, two nephews and five nieces.

Miss Emily Clack departed Wednesday evening for an extended trip through the eastern states. She will be joined by her cousin at Chicago, and after attending the graduating exercises of the University of the Northwest will visit friends in Cincinnatti. Miss Clack aims to view all the large cities and historic places of the East, and upon her return will stop at St. Louis where she will spend a month in viewing the wonders of the World's Fair.

Mrs. John Maloney died last Saturday morning after an illness of but one day. She had been complaining the day before, but nothing serious was contemplated as Mrs. Maloney was hale and hearty. It is thought that heart failure was the cause of death. The deceased was a woman highly respected in the community for her integrity and industry. Her husband died a little over a year ago and this seems to have hastened her death. She was born in County Kerry, Ireland, sixty odd years ago and came to this country early in womanhood. She and her husband were among the first residents of this section, and here nearly all the family was born and reared. Most of them are now married. The youngest girl was married four months ago and this was a quiet social event. The funeral took place Monday from the Catholic church here and the edifice was crowded with many of the old acquaintances and friends of the deceased. The interment was at Holy Cross cemetery.

The different committees in charge of the parish picnic met last Sunday and perfected all arrangements for the big outing. The prize committee reported that over $200 worth of prizes had been collected. There will be another meeting next Sunday evening at 7:30 to perfect further arrangements. The president of the Gaelic League, David Kirby, reported that fully seventy-five members of the local league will be in attendance and that several Irish fiddlers and bagpipers have been secured for the big occasion. He also reported that John H. O'Keefe had secured the services of the celebrated Scotch piper of Nevada and he will be at the depot here on the arrival of the first section to furnish Scotch airs. He will appear in Scotch uniform (bare legs being a part of the make-up.) O'Keefe agrees to furnish this part of the program himself and this will cost him at least $50. Mr. Kiley of Fair Oaks reported that he had secured a long-haired and long-tailed razor-backed pig from Dan Flynn, a prominent member of the Gaelic League. The pig was reared on the Selby ranch and will make a good run after he is clipped and well greased. It is claimed that he will be caught by either Moses Kavanaugh of Ravenswood or John McCarthy of Mountain View. J. B. Kelly reported that the games were all arranged. The tug of war between the married and single men promises to be a big sporting event. The single men will be marshaled by Herman Anderson of Redwood City and the married men by Jeff Murray, and it is dollars to doughnuts that the former will win, as they won last year under the able guidance and skill of "Mine Host" Anderson. Captain Morrey claims he is going to win the fat man's race, but he is going to have a hard competitor in P. J. Maloney, who is training for the occasion. Frank Johnson and Thomas Fitzgerald of the "Foothills Committee" made a startling report. They sold over fifty tickets in and about Portola. They were successful in convincing trustees Kelly and McDonald to give a holiday on the day of the picnic to the school children. P. Lenehan, Joe Ahlert, Chas. Bradley, W. J. Murray and Fred Johnson reported that it may be advisable to charter five more cars and have three sections instead of two, as the sale of tickets everywhere was beyond the most sanguine expectation. They said that at least five cars would be well crowded leaving San Francisco. The matter was laid over until next meeting.

Nowadays when a man does a mean thing and gets caught he sets up the plea that he was hypnotized.

Twenty Years Trial.

There are lots of good things the doctors know nothing about. We frequently cure people of disease after the doctors have given them up. If the disease comes from overwork, dissipation, or exposure, causing week and watery blood, and loss of flesh and strength, we have the one sure remedy in Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. These tablets taken with meals turn the food into rich red blood, making strong steady nerves, and increasing the strength, building up solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 pounds a week. This means health. For nervous prostration, loss of memory, or a pale, sallow complexion, a better remedy was never made. Doctors know nothing about this remedy only the fact that we make cures; as we have been doing this for twenty years we know our method to be the right one. Druggists sell Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic for 75 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $2, or sent by mail, on receipt of price. Write us for a pamphlet telling all about this great medicine. Address Dr. Bosanko Medicine Company, 128 S. Sixth street, Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. Thedford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Thedford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Morgan, Ark., May 25, 1901.
I cannot recommend Thedford's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me up.
C. B. McFARLAND.

Natural Result.

It is very reasonable to suppose if the foundation of a structure was removed that the building itself is bound to come down. This same principle can be applied to disease. Take a medicine into the system that will remove the cause of sickness, and the illness leaves of itself. Dyspepsia, indigestion, sick-headache and biliousness, have their foundation in stomach disorders. Remove the other symptoms are no more. There is one cure for this that all druggists sell for 25 cents per box, it is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. They get right at the beginning of the diseases and make the cure by taking away the cause of it. We will send a small box free by mail, or a large box on receipt of 25 cents. Address Dr. Bosanko Medicine Company, 128 S. Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Willing to Be Honest.

Phil May, the great English artist, earned his first fame in Australia. One day a broken down minister applied to him for charity, and May engaged him as a model. As a joke he also demanded that his eighty-year-old pensioner agree to leave him his skeleton when he died. When May left Australia he called his model in. "You've played me a dirty trick," said May, "by swindling me out of that skeleton. I could have bought one in sound order and condition for half the money you've cost me." The old fellow, conscious of his base ingratitude to his best and most patient friend, answered: "Don't be angry with me, Mr. May. It's not my fault. I meant to keep my word. Stay in Sydney a few months longer and give me another chance to show you that I am a man of honor."

The Celtic Affirmative.

In the speech of so highly developed a people as the Celts there is no equivalent to "yes." Thus it happens that you shall never hear an Irish waiter pronounce the shibboleth "yessir" of his English confrere, for he invariably expresses an affirmative by some such phrase as "I shall, sir." "It is, sir."—

OIL FOR THE BODY

You can't lose an atom without feeling it. The body is like an engine, a watch, a machine; must be kept in good order to run right.

That's the reason Scott's Emulsion is so successful in all wasting diseases. It feeds, nourishes and strengthens when ordinary food won't.

Doctors say Scott's Emulsion is the best nourishment for those who are not as well as they should be.

We use the whole oil in Scott's Emulsion because the great reputation of cod liver oil as a food and medicine was made by using it in this way. Substitutes in the shape of wines, cordials, extracts, etc., should be carefully avoided.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.
